1. Claims 3 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 3 and 7, "consisting" should be changed to ---consisting of---.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over White in view of Ruhlander et al, Harriss, and Bollinger.

White discloses all of the claimed subject matter except for having a generally elliptical-shaped handle, a one-piece valve key, and a pair of cavities adapted to receive a 5/16 inch and a ¼ inch wide valve stem.

Ruhlander et al discloses a generally elliptical-shaped handle. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to form the handle of White as generally elliptically-shaped to enable to tool to be gripping and rotated as taught by Ruhlander et al.

In accordance with MPEP 2144.03(V.)B.

"In re Larson, 340 F.2d 965, 968, 144 USPQ 347, 349 (CCPA 1965) (A claim to a fluid transporting vehicle was rejected as obvious over a prior art reference which differed from the prior art in claiming a brake drum integral with a clamping means, whereas the brake disc and clamp of the prior art comprise several parts rigidly secured together as a single unit. The court affirmed the rejection holding, among other reasons,

"that the use of a one piece construction instead of the structure disclosed in [the prior art] would be merely a matter of obvious engineering choice.")"

Harriss discloses a one-piece valve key "36" in figure 2 thereof. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to form the valve key of White as a one-piece valve as taught by Harriss as such would have been an obvious engineering choice.

Bollinger discloses a socket that includes a pair of square cavities. See figures 4-7 and column 3, lines 9-10. Bollinger discloses that a variety of combinations of socket sizes may be used to accommodate various needs or uses. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to form the device of White with a pair of square cavities to enable the engagement of various sized torque transmission elements as taught by Bollinger. The common knowledge that valve stems/sockets are 5/16 inch and 1/4 inch is admitted prior art because applicant has failed to traverse the examiner's assertion of official notice. Consequently, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to form the plural sockets of White as modified by Bollinger with standard sizes related to valve stems such as 5/16 inch and 1/4 inch cavities as such sizes are known in the art.

4. Claim 7 may be given favorable consideration if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

6. Applicant's arguments filed April 29, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Debra S. Meislin whose telephone number is 571 272-4487. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F, alt. Fridays off.
